LOG LINES

July, 2007

Summer seems to be flying by! Here is July and people are talking about futurities and Congress already.

Show news! LeaAnn Koch-Bingham has been traveling "way down south" to show her halter horses. It makes sense that she would go south since Chris Arentsen, her trainer, is located in southern Illinois. She's been collecting those halter points around home too. Her gelding is not too fond of showmanship though. Ask her about that class at Sterling in June.

Beth Manion and Don't BSB Me are doing well in her recent showings in the HUS select classes. She won under both judges recently at Waukesha in select HUS.

Tanya Relander and Captive Investment earned the circuit award in amateur HUS in DuQuoin in June at the Mid-summer Fling. Patty Novakowski riding GT Walkin Good earned the circuit award in select HUS.

Kim Semanisin and Native Iron picked up their first two circuit awards at the IKI Summer Circuit held in DuQuoin. Kim and "Stan" picked up 9 firsts and 1 second to earn circuit awards in both novice amateur trail and novice amateur horsemanship. Mike got to show "Stan" too and picked up points in amateur and senior tail.

The International — more news

I missed putting in some news from the International in the last Log issue. Congratulations to Ashlee Stewart and Crooked Assets for being circuit champions in the 10-18 walk trot. Also, Kaitlyn Stewart and Crooked Assets were reserve circuit champions in youth senior geldings at that show. Ashley Trousdale and Plenty of Mac were reserve circuit champions in novice amateur equitation.

More Wisconsin showing...

Even though it seems to storm frequently when we try to show in Wisconsin, LLQHA members do well and bring home circuit awards.

Kaitlyn Stewart and Crooked Assets were circuit champions in novice youth horsemanship at Paper Valley recently. Kaitlyn and Deluxe Dazzler finished their youth ROM there as well. Tyler Stewart was the circuit champion in lead line. Ashley Trousdale and Plenty of Mac picked up points in novice amateur HUS, equitation, and horsemanship. Congrats to all of them!

Sarah Clinton and Naturally Its George were high point all-around youth in Waukesha recently. Her sister Stephanie was reserve high point. Gail Schroeder and Big Bay Investment won amateur western pleasure under one judge in Waukesha. Big Bay Investment was also first under both judges in senior western pleasure.

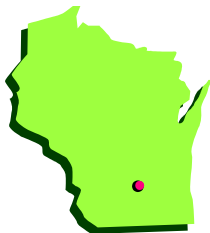

Cap Gun news... Lots of LLQHA members there!

Cindy Carlson and Shes a Choice Zippo earned the circuit award in novice amateur western pleasure.

Millie Mauritzson and Chex Your Destiny were circuit champs in select trail, novice amateur trail and select western pleasure. Jeff Greaves showing Simply a Hustler owned by Shea Stephenson was circuit champion in senior trail. Chayna DeNicolo and BMQ Genuine Solution were circuit champs in 14-18 showmanship. Ashley Trousdale and "Trump" were the novice amateur HUS circuit champs. Ed Lawrence picked up 2 circuit championship chairs as well. Anna Ricobene and Blazeless were circuit champions in youth trail. McKenzie Sancken won the high point in the small fry division. Gail Schroeder was second in amateur western pleasure both days. Mary Kay Gustafson was back in the show pen showing in showmanship and amateur western pleasure.

LLQHA June shows at Sterling...

Ours shows were bigger than ever: 336 entries on Sat. and 293 entries on Sunday. It was hot and a little dusty at times. For those who were there, the rooster did find a good home but he sure did have many temporary owners during the weekend. Thanks to all who helped our youth raise some money and have some fun. Luann Meyer and The Boston Stranger won the amateur weekend all-around. Lynn Fierro and Leaguers Good Friday won the novice amateur all-around. Stephanie Clinton and Chayna DeNicolo were the youth all-around winners. Thanks to those who helped make the shows successful. Jannee Waterman, our announcer, and Rich Smith, our ring steward, worked hard to make the shows run smoothly.

Condolences!

Judy Bischoff's mother, Geraldine passed away in June. Frank Peters, a long time LLQHA member and owner of the stud Especially Vested, also died recently.

Condolences also to the Bingham family and the Davidsmeyer family on the passing of Georgia Davidsmeyer, known to many as "Granny." Georgia owned the World Champion stallion Recognized and assisted with the Illinois Quarter Horse Association futurity for many years.

Select classes with small numbers...

An issue has come up this year regarding select classes that have small numbers. Occasionally select amateurs have been asked to combine with regular amateur classes in order to provide points in the combined class. Select riders are at times reluctant to combine for fear of losing state or LLQHA points towards year end awards. The issue is similar to combining 13 and under and 14-18 classes when they are small. LLQHA has agreed to count points in combined classes towards the select categories when the select and the amateur classes are scheduled on the showbill but no one shows in the select class.

Chayna DeNicolo will be showing a new horse soon. Her new grey gelding from Canada arrived just the other day. And I hear that Marlene Kirsteatter has a new horse also. She recently won a select amateur western pleasure class in Wisconsin. Way to go Marlene!

More show news....

A report from the Fond du Lac shows was that the arena footing seemed much better this year. A lot of the sand had been removed. Although the shows were small, fun was still to be had. The giveaways included feed buckets and gas gift cards. Kaitlyn Stewart and Crooked Asset won the weekend youth all around chair.

The Illinois State Fair quarter horse show had over 470 entries in one day in June 2007. Next year the show will move back to a July date.
