LOG LINES

October, 2009

October is upon us. Many people are going off to Congress—either to show or watch others. Good luck to all the participants.

Several members came home with new horses from Rita Crundwell's sale this year. Beth Manion bought a 2 year old gelding sired by NI Fabulous called NI Scorchin. The horse had been in training with Kelly Jadin earlier this year. Chayna DeNicolo came home with a 2 year old that been in training with Ken & Marcia Freeman. Watch for her in the future in the hunter under saddle classes on NI Naturallyfabulous. Kelly & Makayla Maciejewski bought 2 new horses at the sale. One was a yearling while the other was a 2 year old. The Crundwell facility in Dixon was gorgeous.

Get well wishes for Chayna DeNicolo who was kicked in the face in an unfortunate accident. She had some recovery time at home before she's back in the saddle, but I've seen her out there with her new 2 year old hunter under saddle horse.

Booker Dee Scotch and Daniele Luetke were 13 and under Youth Trail Champion Chex Your Destiny and Millie Mauritzson were the Select and Senior Trail Champions and Dazzling After Dark and Keri Collins were Amateur Trail Champions!! Daniele and Booker were also the Circuit Champions at Cap Gun in the Novice Youth Trail

Kayla Reda and Luken for the Blue aka Murray were named World Champion Youth HUS at the NSBA World show in August at Tulsa, OK. It was pretty exciting.

Congratulations to Millie Mauritzson & Chex Your Destiny on being the select amateur all around at the LLQHA shows in Sept. Also congratulations to Lauren Fassler & Tampa Bay Buccaneer for being the amateur all around at those shows. Joan Sellberg & Simply a Hustler picked up points in select trail, showmanship and horsemanship by winning classes on Sunday at that show. Beth Manion & Don't BSB Me won select HUS on Sunday. Lauren Stepaniak & Native Iron won amateur horsemanship classes. Cori Flowers & Donovans Legend won novice youth showmanship and horsemanship classes. Jim Steinman & Tru Valentine were reserve amateur mare on Saturday. I believe I heard that Gail Schroeder & Big Bay Investment finished their superior in performance geldings that weekend. Ed Meyer & Mr Te Invitation picked up points in select western pleasure. Millie Mauritzson picked up points in select horsemanship & trail by winning classes on Saturday. I picked up points in showmanship with my 2 year old filly, So Simply Designed, that weekend. And went reserve champion amateur mare under one judge! Makayla Maciejewski & Dee Country Investor won youth equitation and were grand youth gelding. Her sister, Madison, showed in some walk trot classes and youth gelding classes.

LeaAnn Koch's gelding Dr. Cool Cash and her mare HK Kids Playmate are doing well in the national standings. They both went grand at shows in DuQuoin and Gordyville in September. She was 5th with her gelding and 7th with her mare at the Select World show recently.
