LOG LINES

Oct. 2010

Fall is here. Many people are off to the Congress. Hopefully, they will be successful and come home with great memories—and not the “Congress crud.” Please send me information about how you did at Congress so I can post it in the next Log.

New horses! A couple of people have purchased new horses lately. Look for Kathy Harper on a new western pleasure gelding. Look for the Stewart family with a new gelding. You might see him in western pleasure, hunter under saddle or performance halter.

Congratulations to some circuit champions at the August Jefferson, WI shows. Beth Manion was circuit champ in select hunter under saddle. Jeff Greaves, riding Brenda Walker's horse, Boston Powers, was circuit champ in green trail. Joan Sellberg and Simply a Hustler were select showmanship circuit champions.

Congratulations to Chayna DeNicolo and NI Naturallyfabulous on obtaining their youth championship! Great job in a short time! Chayna is off to college at Kansas State University and is a member of their equestrian team. Best of luck in those competitions!

Congratulations to Marcia & Ken Freeman and their 3 year old mare, Customized Special. She competed in the Division 1 Futurity in Springfield and came home with a decent chunk of money in the last year of that futurity.

Congratulations on LeaAnn Koch and her weanling filly, Best to be Me. She won first place in the late weanling fillies and non-pro weanling fillies at the IQHA fall futurity. Her yearling filly completed her ROM in open and amateur halter at fall shows recently.

LeaAnn's going to be dressing carefully for awhile. She fell and broke her elbow. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to all the LLQHA youth who did well at the Youth World Show! I heard the weather again was hot and the competition was tough.

More on the IQHA fall futurity

Thirteen horses showed in the adult non pro walk trot, one of the largest of those classes I'd seen all year. Makayla Maciejewski & Thumb Enterprise picked up novice youth showmanship points as well as novice youth hunter under saddle points. Makayla and Will Be Hot Sizzlin picked up points in green hunter under saddle also. My horse, So Simply Designed, and I picked up points in novice amateur and select amateur showmanship under each judge. Congratulations to Joan Sellberg and Simply a Hustler for winning a select amateur showmanship under 2 judges. Teri Pankau and Shes a Choice Zippo were first in amateur select western pleasure each day, picking up several points under each judge. Boston Powers and Brenda Walker were right behind her in the placings, also earning amateur select western pleasure points. Brenda and her horse also won select horsemanship under two judges. Ross Walker and A Peppy Dual Spook won a reining class under two judges. Ginger Mandel and With Impulse also picked up points in select western pleasure. Jeff Greaves showed With Impulse in junior western pleasure and earned two seconds the first day. Jennifer Wagner and Ima Party Crasher picked up youth hunter under saddle, equitation, performance gelding and showmanship points. Jennifer and Cashette Twister (her other horse) picked up some youth horsemanship points, winning the class under several of the judges. Gail Schroeder's horse, Big Bay Investment picked up points in senior western pleasure both days being shown. Gail and her gelding also picked up amateur performance gelding points. Cori Flowers' horse, Goodbarshandsumasset, picked up some trail points and western riding points being shown by Jeff Greaves.

USA wins the team gold in reining at the Alltech FEI World Equestrian games in Kentucky recently. A US reinier also won the individual gold.

2010 schedule (partial)

Date:	Show or Event	Place	Judge(s) — for shows
Nov. 20-21	Equestrian Lifestyle Expo	Grayslake
Nov. 26-28	Gordyville Turkey Run	Gordyville	Not LLQHA approved, but is IQHA approved.

Nov. 20-21

Equestrian Lifestyle Expo & Holiday Market presents "All Things Equestrian!" Whether you're looking for feed, tack, togs, a barn to house them, industry experts to help you become a better horseman – or just a good time learning more about horses and the equestrian lifestyle – you'll find it at Expo along with great gift ideas.

New this year will be sessions designed specifically for new horse owners and a special track for people who manage equine facilities.

Expo will be indoors at the new Lake County Fairgrounds' Expo Center, which can accommodate booths and seminar areas but cannot accommodate horses, hence Expo's focus on education, equestrian-themed activities and shopping.

Shopping and seminars all are on one level, spread across the 65,000-square-foot open space, along with commercial, club and school booths plus fun activities in game areas. Visitors soon see that Expo is "not your father's" horse fair. It includes the serious educational programming and business help you expect, plus many exciting features not found at other events.

Adequan Select World to Stay in Amarillo

A three-year contract will keep show in Amarillo through 2012.

From the The American Quarter Horse Journal – A new three-year contract with the Tri-State Fair that began with the 2010 Adequan Select World Championship Show will keep the show at the facility in Amarillo through 2012, according to Tom Persechino, AQHA executive director of competition and breed integrity.

"The AQHA Executive Committee approved the three-year contract, which gives the Tri-State Fair an option for an additional two years at the completion of the three years," Persechino said. "The contract also contains the provision that should the show grow, AQHA can exercise an option to move the show to a larger facility."
